1000 Artists - 2000 works of art

The Kunst Zürich in Oerlikon (Art Zurich in Oerlikon) in its 17th Edition - an ideal exhibition for budding art collectors

...

With a keen eye you may find that Ken Kewleys small-scale paintings between cubist subject and geometric representation testifies of great independence and are worth its price (at Rothschild, Tel Aviv between 1500 and 6000 francs). And one may also discover that Lorenz Spring's pasty responses to Monet's water lily paintings have something absolutely appealing (Carzaniga, Basel) - art cannot and does not always have to be invented entirely anew.

Zürich Oerlikon, Kunst Zürich (ABB-Hall 550), until 20. November. Vernissage 18. November, 1600 to 2200.
